'No Complications' Report Eases Tension

PLAN CHURCH CENTENNIAL—Formulating plans for the observance of the 100th anniversary of Clinton Avenue Methodist Church during the week of Oct. 15 are (l-r) Kenneth E. Hyatt, Harley A. Miner, Mrs. Willis Ryder, secretary; the Rev. Clyde Herbert Snell, pastor, and Mrs. Samuel Morgan, chairman. Other committee member, Mrs. Clayton Smith, not present.

The program for the week will include the anniversary dinner on Saturday, Oct. 15, after which Mayor Frederick H. Stang will speak. On Sunday, Oct. 16, Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, president of Ohio Wesleyan University, native of Kingston and presently serving as Director of Defense Mobilization for President Eisenhower, will be the guest speaker at the anniversary service. Two Mishaps Put Seven In Hospital

Seven persons were hospitalized as the result of two automobile accidents in Ulster county during the weekend.

Five were reported in "fair" condition and two "good" by hospital authorities.

THREE PERSONS were admitted to Benedictine Hospital early Saturday night after a 1949 sedan went off Granite road about a half mile south of Accord and struck a tree, according to Ellenville State Police.

Joseph Warren Hoag, 61, of Accord, driver of the car, suffered a broken nose. His condition was listed as "good." Mrs. Hoag, 52, who suffered severe lacerations of the right leg and contusions and lacerations of the forehead, and John Hoag, 12, whose injuries were not immediately determined, were listed as "fair."

Four persons, all in "fair" condition, were admitted to Veterans Memorial Hospital early last night following a two-car collision on Route 209 about 150 feet south of the intersection of Route 209 and the Queens Highway.

THEY WERE Roland Smith, 20, of Kerhonkson, who suffered a laceration and possible fracture of the jaw, Robert Hendrickson, 21, Kerhonkson, with a fractured nose and lacerations of the nose and lips, Rosario Bonura, 30, of the Granite Hotel in the hamlet of Granite, with laceration of the right wrist, possible fracture of the right lower ribs and lacerations of the knees, and Martin Lynch, 32, of Crocks Locks, with lacerations of both knees, a possible knee fracture, lacerations of the nose and cerebral concussion, troopers said.

Mr. Hendrickson and Miss Bonura were passengers in a car operated by Mr. Smith, traveling south on Route 209, when it was in collision with a passenger car operated by Mr. Lynch, traveling north, troopers said.

Mr. Lynch told troopers he was blinded by lights of the vehicle approaching from the opposite direction.

Girl, 6, Bitten by Fox Found in Haverstraw

Search throughout the east for a six-year-old girl bitten by a rabid fox early Saturday afternoon at the Catskill Game Farm ended successfully this morning when the child's mother heard the story on the radio and called her family doctor.

The little girl is Nancy Bihler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bihler of Haverstraw road, Suffern.

Dr. John Petrone of 35 Park avenue, Suffern, told The Freeman the child "seems fine" and was "wondering what it's all about."

He said the fox was "definitely rabid" and that treatments would begin immediately. The little girl will have a series of inoculations—a treatment Dr. Petrone described as "pretty rough."

Mrs. Bihler heard the news about 8 a. m., it was reported. Dr. Petrone notified the Suffern Police Department which put the information on teletype. Catskill State Police advised The Freeman shortly after 9 a. m. that it had received a message identifying the girl and listing her parents and physician.

Officers of the Suffern Police Department were dispatched to the Lederle Laboratory, Pearl River, for anti-rabies serum.

The fox, which came out of the woods at the Game Farm, located near Palenville, was later destroyed and its head sent to the State Department of Health, Albany, for tests.

More than 40 hours had elapsed before the little girl was located.

A State Health Department source said the incubation period of the disease varies, according to the location of the wound and the amount of virus entering the system. The nearer the wound to the brain, the more serious it is.

The Bihler family stopped Saturday afternoon for a picnic at the public grounds just outside the Game Farm. An animal came out of the woods. Nancy petted it and it bit her.

The girl's father reported to one of the attendants that Nancy had been bitten by a tame raccoon and was told by the attendant that the farm had no tame raccoons. He accompanied the child's father to the picnic grounds where Nancy explained how the animal had nipped her.

The attendant spotted the fox still lurking nearby and told the family to wait until he returned. He went to report the incident to Roland Lindemann, proprietor of the farm.

Mr. Lindemann rushed to the

Red Feather Fund To Aid 8 Agencies

Today marks the official opening of the Kingston Area Community Chest's second annual Red Feather Drive, seeking a total of $100,275 for the support of eight separate agencies.

Under the banner of the Red Feather, volunteer workers will this month be carrying out their assignments in factories, office buildings, stores and homes throughout the Kingston area, to offer everyone an opportunity to contribute toward the work of the eight member agencies.

THE DRIVE COMBINES the fund appeals of eight agencies that prior to last year conducted separate campaigns. These member agencies are: Boys' Club of Kingston; Rip Van Winkle Council of Boy Scouts; Ulster County Council of Girl Scouts; Jewish Community Center of Kingston; Salvation Army; Volunteers of America; YMCA of Kingston; and YWCA of Kingston.

During the first phase of the drive, emphasis will be on "giving where you work," a method of financing local agencies said to be most convenient for the majority of givers and at the same time the most efficient way of contacting the largest number of potential contributors with the least expenditure of campaign funds and volunteer workers' time.

FOUR DIVISIONS: Industry, Commercial, Professional and Health, and Government and Education, have been formed to contact persons at their place of business or employment. The Industry and Commercial divisions will also be soliciting firm or corporate gifts as well as contributions from executives and employees.

The Industry division was organized in mid-September and has begun its task of contacting each of the area's approximately 100 large and small manufacturing firms.

A SPECIAL one-day campaign among the city's retail merchants is planned for Thursday of this week. The intensive campaign has been patterned after the Chamber of Commerce membership drive, and workers will be asked to contact approximately 10 stores each in their immediate area, rather than having to travel to various parts of the city to contact selected prospects. Larger establishments will also be asked to offer their employees the opportunity to contribute at work, the same as is done in the industry division.

The second phase of the campaign, beginning about the middle of October, involves house-to-house solicitation in the Kingston area, including Hurley, Port Ewen, town of Ulster, East Kingston, and intervening territory, by residential and suburban divisions. This phase is designed to offer those not reached by the other divisions the opportunity of contributing.

TWO OTHER DIVISIONS are functioning during the campaign. Clubs and Organizations division has the dual purpose of contacting all such groups, including labor unions, for a treasury subscription and offering to them program help and speakers. The advance gifts division, soliciting contributions from a special list of prospects, in advance of the actual drive dates, began functioning late last month.

Attempts are being made to avoid duplication between divisions. Window stickers are available for all contributors and these may be placed on a front door or window to indicate to the residential or suburban division worker that the family residing there has already been contacted.

LEADERS of the volunteer Red Feather organization have set two goals this year as part of their achievement in reaching the over-all campaign goal. The first of these is to "spread the base of giving" so more residents of the area share in the financing of the eight participating agencies.

The second is to increase the use of payroll deduction or deferred payment pledges, both to make easier the giving of larger amounts and to spread giving.

UN Deplores Boycott On Algeria by France

United Nations, N. Y., Oct. 3 (AP)—UN delegates speaking in the General Assembly's final round of policy debates today deplored France's absence from the hall in a protest boycott over the Assembly's Algerian stand.

Osten Unden, Sweden's foreign minister, led off with "deep regrets that the deliberations of this Assembly last Friday have caused the declaration by the French government which has just been published. . . I feel we all hope a solution will soon be found to this abnormal situation."

Unden prepared text said the French had sent a communication to the UN on the situation. UN officials said there had been no direct word from the French. UN Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld still withheld any comment.

Unden also voiced hopes for President Eisenhower's speedy recovery.

Mohamed Ali, Pakistan's ambassador to the United States, told the Assembly, "the Pakistan delegation views with regret and concern the absence of the French delegation from the General Assembly." He said he hoped it would return.

"Without the full participation of France in all of the organs of the United Nations," said Ali, "this organization would be greatly handicapped."

Pakistan was the first country to express such concern among those that voted Friday in favor of an assembly debate on Algeria. That vote led to the French walkout.

The French declared a boycott of the assembly and its committees in protest against the world forum's 28-27 vote ordering a debate on French administration in Algeria.

The French cabinet extended the protest by pulling out the permanent French delegation to the UN but kept France's veto powerful permanent seat on the UN Security Council, along with its places on the disarmament committee and subcommittee.

Unden prepared text said the French had sent a communication to the UN on the situation. UN officials said there had been no direct word from the French. UN Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld still withheld any comment.

Unden also voiced hopes for President Eisenhower's speedy recovery.

Last Night Bulletin Causes Stir President Rested On Awakening

Denver, Oct. 3 (AP)—Anxiety over President Eisenhower's illness eased considerably this morning as physicians reported his condition "showed no changes to indicate complications." The bulletin said the Chief Executive's condition "remain satisfactory."

THE OFFICIAL report from Fitzsimons Army Hospital at 9:40 a. m. (MST) served to lift tension created when the doctors announced last night that Eisenhower was "a little tired" and not feeling "as well as usual."

That bulletin last evening was the first which failed to say that the Chief Executive was progressing satisfactorily "without complications."

THE DOCTORS have said repeatedly that any complications were most likely to develop during the first two weeks after the heart attack Eisenhower suffered a week ago last Saturday.

The change in the 64-year-old President's condition last night came on the ninth day of the crucial first two weeks.

This morning's medical bulletin, about 2 hours 40 minutes later than usual to permit thorough examination of the President after he awakened late, said this:

THE PRESIDENT SLEPT soundly from 8:45 p. m. to 7:10 a. m., with the exception of a half hour from 4:25 a. m. to 4:55 a. m.

"At that time a medical examination showed his temperature, pulse and blood pressure to be normal."

"When he awoke this morning the President felt rested and refreshed."

"His morning examination showed no changes to indicate complications and his condition remains satisfactory."

"His temperature, pulse and blood pressure continue normal."

"HIS CARDIOGRAM continues to show slow, progressive evolution."

"The President had a breakfast consisting of a slice of cantaloupe, an egg, two strips of beef bacon, a slice of whole wheat toast and a glass of skimmed milk."

"Mrs. Eisenhower visited with the President during breakfast time."

Last night's bulletin at 8:55 p. m. (MST) brought a sharp break in the succession of encouraging reports which had been coming from Eisenhower's bedside for more than a week. That report said:

"The President is a little tired this evening and did not feel as well as usual. Otherwise his condition is good."

"His temperature, pulse and blood pressure are normal."

Presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty said at the time he issued that bulletin that the President's physicians would make a thorough examination this morning in an effort to find out what made him tired.

THIS MORNING Hagerty told a news conference:

"The doctors tell me tiredness is not unusual in these cases."

Asked whether they had discovered any explanation of the fatigue, Hagerty simply called attention to the statement in the latest bulletin saying that Eisenhower's condition this morning showed no indication of complications.

At that point Hagerty said he wanted to emphasize for the benefit of people throughout the nation and the world that "we have been honored in this way."

The citation was presented to the post by Ernest Gardner, county commander. It is personally signed by National Commander Seaborn P. Collins, George Ehinger, national child welfare chairman, Randel Shake, national child welfare director and George A. Leber.

Mayor's Office Gets Bronze Phone In Observance of 75th Anniversary

The New York Telephone Company installed a bronze commemorative telephone on the city hall desk of Mayor Fred Stang yesterday as part of the observance of 75 years of telephone service in Kingston.

Today through Thursday, from 4 p. m. to 9 p. m., the telephone company will note the observance at an open house in the central office building, 11-15 West O'Reilly street. All area residents are invited.

In addition, area residents who had Kingston telephone service at least 50 years ago were to be honored by the company at a luncheon today at the Governor Clinton Hotel.

The commemorative telephone carries the official seal of the City of Kingston and the words, "In commemoration of the 75th anniversary of telephone service in Kingston, 1880-1955, New York Telephone Company."

Present at the installation in city hall, besides the Mayor, were Leonard W. Herrick, telephone company manager, and the installer, Paul Jones.

When the telephone was placed in service Mayor Stang made a free demonstration call to Los Angeles, Calif.

After the call the Mayor congratulated the dial telephone service on the growth of telephone service in Kingston and the steps the company has taken to meet the increase in calling requirements. He also wished the company "an even more successful future in the city."

Mr. Herrick thanked the Mayor for his comments, remarked on the company's past accomplishments in Kingston, and pointed out that "there is still much that remains to be done."

He said the company strives continually to keep up with the pace of community and telephone development, which accelerated after the war and resulted in an increase in the number of telephones from 4,400 in 1945 to 18,400 today.

"We have already announced that dial telephone service is scheduled for Kingston in late 1957 or early 1958. Meanwhile, we will continue to install manual central office equipment and outside plant facilities as they are needed to meet present and future requests for service," Mr. Herrick said.

Civil Service Status

Washington, Oct. 3 (AP)—Federal employees with indefinite appointments may apply until Nov. 10, 1956 for regular civil service status, the Civil Service Commission announced today. The indefinites are employees hired during the rapid expansion of government employment caused by the Korean emergency, without taking competitive examinations or acquiring civil service job protection. Congress provided this year for giving them full status. The law becomes effective Nov. 10 this year.

Clearing Tracks

Corning, N. Y., Oct. 3 (AP)—Wrecking crews worked today to clear both tracks of the Erie Railroad's main line which were blocked yesterday when 20 cars of a 141-car Chicago-to-New York freight jumped the tracks. The railroad said it expected to restore service over the line sometime today.

5-Year Plan Incomplete

Hong Kong, Oct. 3 (AP)—Less than 50 per cent of Red China's 1955 basic construction plans were fulfilled during the first eight months of this year, an issue of the Peiping People's Daily reaching Hong Kong today reported. The paper indicated fulfillment of the Communists' first five-year plan may be in jeopardy.

YMCA, Chest Unit, Has Long Record of Service

For more than half a century the Young Men's Christian Association, an affiliate of the Kingston Area Community Chest, Inc., has served children, youth and adults of the city of Kingston.

The YMCA, headed by General Secretary Louis H. Schafer, is governed by a board of directors consisting of 21 men prominent in business, industrial and civic affairs of the community. The Y also has a board of trustees composed of seven men, with two more to be appointed this fall.

Mr. Schafer, who received his bachelor's degree from Springfield College where he majored in physical education, has had long experience in administrative work. William Irland, another member of the staff, majored in physical education at Syracuse where he received his degree. The newest member of the staff is Frank Rebollo, a graduate of King's College with a major in physical education.

It was pointed out that in physical education a student also studied anatomy, chemistry and psychology, along with other group activities and young peoples work. All three members of the staff are expert in the teaching of swimming and life saving.

The three staff men are also qualified in promoting a program for young people in a youth center.

The second floor over the gymnasium is used two or three times weekly for this specialized youth work. The youth center sponsors dancing and games of many kinds, such as checkers, chess, ping pong, pocket billiards, etc.

The youth center also offers special parties, such as the annual Halloween party, the Valentine party, the Christmas vacation dance, etc.

The staff is well versed in child and adult psychology and fully competent to organize and direct programs for all ages, male and female, from eight to the eldest member participating in YMCA activities. During July and August the age limit drops as low as five years for the Day Camping season.

The YMCA cooperates with many non-registered, non-members who use the building in group form. The AA uses the upstairs gymnasium each Monday evening, as they have for the past five years, with an attendance of 75 to 125 at each meeting.

The Industrial Management Club, composed of industrial officials in the Kingston area, holds monthly meetings beginning with a supper at 6:30 p. m. The group has about 140 members with an attendance of more than 80 at each meeting. Following a short business session a speaker prominent in industry addresses the group.

The YMCA ladies auxiliary is composed of some 35 or 40 women, about 20 on the active list, who hold monthly meetings in homes of members or in the Y. Mrs. George DuBois has been president of the auxiliary for more than 30 years. There are also many others in the auxiliary with long service records. Several rummage sales are held during the year, a cafeteria supper in conjunction with a bazaar and many parties, both in private home and in the Y lobby. Suppers and banquets are cooked and served in the youth center. Through these parties, bazaars, etc., money is raised to buy dishes, cutlery, etc.

Mr. Schafer said "it would be difficult to operate a YMCA without a good ladies auxiliary because of the service they give in putting on the many suppers and banquets."

The Electrol, Inc., union uses the Y upper gymnasium for special meetings. The Y is conveniently located close to the plant.

There are also many non-church groups that use the Y meeting rooms, such as the local chapter of the National Association of Colored People.

The Central Businessmen's Association holds its monthly meetings at the Y. The Kingston Ministerial Association holds many of its meetings there, as do many of the bowling associations of Kingston, as well as many baseball teams, especially for the organization of their summer season.

MORE THAN 180 men use the bowling alleys at the Y. The alleys are in use five nights a week and pay for themselves. Often the sixth night is used for special groups.

The Y cooperates with the Kingston Boy Scouts by putting on a special swimming program under Scout leadership for approximately 20 Mondays during the year. The Scouts also may participate in other Y programs on request.

The Y swimming pool is also available for use by non-members, such as church and Sunday school groups, high school clubs, Onteora School, Saugeton Canteen group, Saugeton Boy Scouts, etc. Special ladies classes are held in the pool for 10 weeks each summer.

Nurses are in use five nights a week and pay for themselves. Often the sixth night is used for special groups. The Y cooperates with the Kingston Boy Scouts by putting on a special swimming program under Scout leadership for approximately 20 Mondays during the year. The Scouts also may participate in other Y programs on request.

THE Y HAS an extensive program for its members throughout the year. Many small groups use the Y for meetings, educational work, crafts, dancing, moving picture and camera groups.

"There are many days when outside groups use the building along with the regular schedule so that there are more than 500 in the building throughout the day," Mr. Schafer said. More than 900 people used Y facilities last Halloween.

482 Added to U. S. Payrolls in August

Washington, Oct. 3 (AP)—The Federal Government added a net of 482 employees during August for the seventh consecutive monthly increase in its civilian employment, Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) announced today.

Byrd is chairman of the joint Committee on Reduction of Non-Essential Federal Expenditures, which keeps a continuing check on federal payrolls.

The increase, all of which was laid to new civilian hiring by the armed services, raised overall civilian employment to 2,385,077 persons.

Byrd said in a statement that the Navy and the Air Force reported a net civilian employment increase of 3,891 while the Army reported a net decline of 3,071.

School News

ONTEORA SCHOOL — Onteora opened this year with many new students and teachers.

The senior class is starting the year by having a dance Oct. 28 in honor of Onteora's first football season. Rudy Rossmann is president and assisting him are Dorothy Parsons, secretary; Rosemary Fuchs, secretary; and Rosalie Jones, treasurer. With the co-operation of all members, the class hopes to raise enough money to travel to New York City during Easter vacation.

The marshal squad is still patrolling the halls and supervising the assemblies under the leadership of Watson Goodrich, Captain Bill Reynolds and Co-captains Richard Smith and Barbara Maier.

The journalism club and class are now working on the first issue of "The Onteora" now that the subscription drive is over. Editor is Doris Julian; Co-editors are Rosalie Jones and Nancy Ostrander. "All news of interest is welcome," says Miss Donovan, advisor.

ONTEORA'S FOOTBALL team, coached by Andy Shekitta and Tom Wheeler, shows prospects of being a winner. Captains are Bill Reynolds and Ted Jensen.

Year book staff is beginning its plans for a bigger and better Album. The advertising and subscription drives will soon begin and art work is already being planned under the supervision of Mrs. Wagonohr. Editors are Rudy Rossmann and Trudy Krien.

Dramatics Club is in full swing again with Robert Thornell now casting for a play to be presented at an assembly.

Cheerleaders, with their coach, Miss Marie Gorton, have their job planned, too. They are wearing scarlet and grey felt Indian costumes. Captains are Doris Julian, secretary, and Estelle Bundy, junior varsity.

On Sept. 23 a pep rally was held to introduce the student body to the cheerleaders, football players and new cheerers.

On Oct. 10 the Problems of Democracy class will travel to New York City to tour the UN and learn more about the organization.

On Oct. 12 the French Art classes are going to New York City. The French class is going to cinema de la Francaise while the art class goes to a famous museum. Together they will tour the UN and probably eat at a French restaurant.

MARBLETOWN CENTRAL — The first meeting of the new school year of the Marbletown Central school PTF Club was held on Wednesday evening at the school with a very good attendance. The meeting was in charge of the new president, Robert Hettima. The other officers are Vice President Mrs. Matthew Spiring, Secretary Mrs. Robert Shumate and a Treasurer Chester Davis.

Mrs. Helen Wedvik is chairman of the membership committee assisted by the Mmes. Nathan Trowbridge and Oliver Bogart. Richard Sheils is chairman of the program committee. The president is asking for volunteers for chairman of the fund raising committee and the school committee. The teachers were introduced and each gave a brief talk. A lengthy discussion followed on centralization.

Mt. Tremper

Mt. Tremper, Oct. 3—The Ladies' Sewing Circle met at the church and Grange hall Tuesday afternoon. Members attending were: Mrs. Reginald Every Sr., Miss Clara Davis, Mrs. Charles Gustafson, Mrs. Grover Hedges, Mrs. Francis Lane and Mrs. Harold Riseley. They voted to send a $50 donation to the American Cancer Society as a memorial to Mrs. Harvey L. Todd, deceased wife of the Rev. Harvey L. Todd, pastor of the local church. The Sewing Circle also decided to give a donation of $500 toward the heating system to be installed in the Shandaken Reformed Church of Mount Tremper and the adjacent recreation hall.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Hoyt for a weekend were Mrs. Hoyt's father and stepmother, Mr. and Mrs. Nels J. Lauritzen of Fords, N. J. They were accompanied by their son, Nels Jr. Mr. Lauritzen is police captain or Woodbridge Township, N. J. The family held a triple celebration in observance of the recent birthdays of Jan Hoyt, Mr. Lauritzen and Nels Jr.

Guests at the home of Mrs. John Callaghan Wednesday afternoon included: Mrs. Mabel Buley, Mrs. Doris Hornbeck, Mrs. Francis Lane, Mrs. Anthony Schuhose, Mrs. Helen Umhey, Mrs. Howard Umhey and Mrs. Bert Winne Sr.

Mrs. Richard Byron entertained some of the members of the local church choir Wednesday evening. Guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Haver, Mrs. Edgar Hudler and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Phillips. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. R. Clayton Hoyt and Mrs. Helene Umhey, the other members of the choir, were unable to attend.

MONDAY THROUGH THURSDAY

OCTOBER 3-6, 4:00 to 9:00 P.M.

Ever wonder what happens in the central office when you lift your receiver to make a phone call? We believe you'd be fascinated to see the amazing equipment—and the people who make it work—in action. That's why we're holding "Open House" here. So why not be our guests—you and your entire family.

Here are a few of the interesting things you'll see during a guided tour of the telephone building:

- Operators at the switchboard handling actual phone calls...
- Thousands of wires that weave a spidery network along the central office frames...
- Automatic devices, including fuses that look and act like grasshoppers, which help keep your service trouble-free...

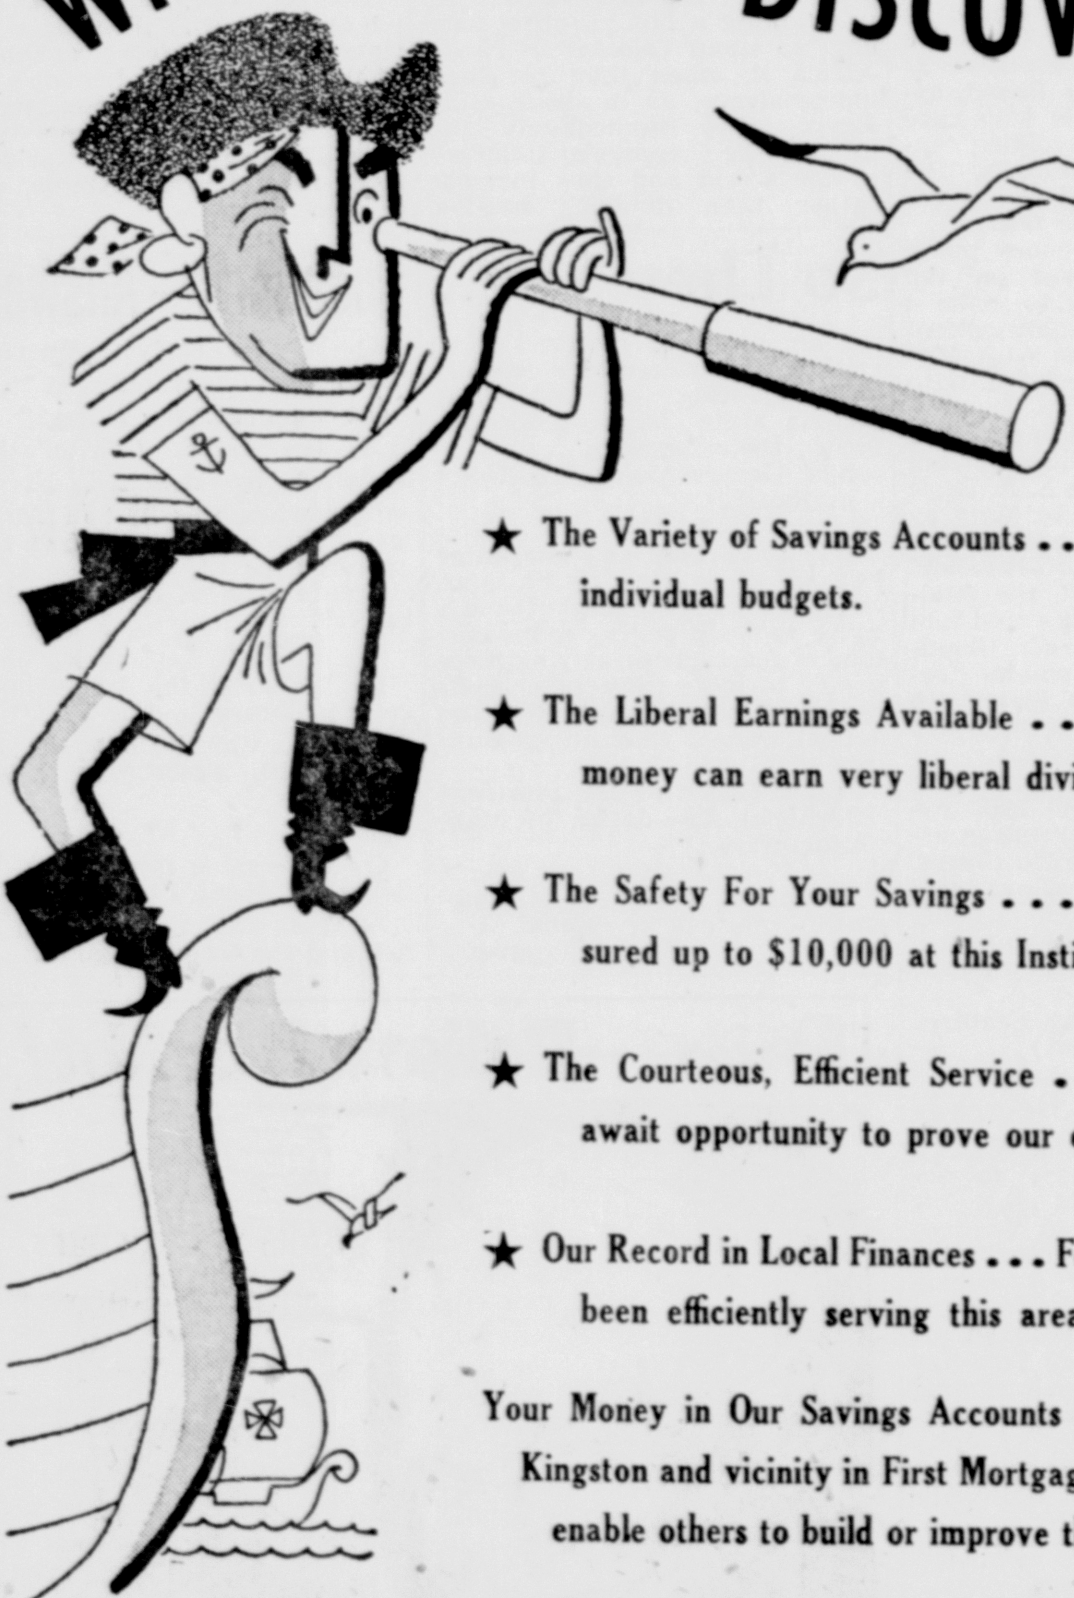

In addition, you'll meet and talk with some of the folks who furnish your own telephone service. The welcome mat is out. We're looking forward to meeting you in person and will do our best to make your visit with us interesting and entertaining.

NEWSPAPER WEEK

The purpose of National Newspaper Week, which currently is being observed, is to focus attention on an institution in whose operation you have a vastly greater hand than perhaps you've ever realized. It is also an appropriate time to call your attention to an effort to deprive you of that hand.

The institution is your newspaper—daily, weekly or whatever.

News is all things to all men. What it is depends on who is defining it. And it is your definition, not the editor's which matters. The paper stays in business if it does a competent job of fulfilling your definition of news. If it devotes itself to the editor's conception of news, it soon fails.

When a newspaper man speaks of his news judgment he doesn't mean his ability to determine what really counts under some mysterious process of selection. He means, instead, his ability to surmise what you will consider news. How good he is and how successful the paper is depends on how unerringly he can make that surmise.

All readers won't agree that some particular item is news, naturally, but the editor must meet each reader's definition often enough so that every reader will feel he's getting his money's worth when he buys the paper.

That is where and how you have a very big hand in determining what goes into it.

Now as to the effort to take this function away from you. It lies in a growing effort by people, who are neither editors nor representatives of the readers, to decide arbitrarily which facts shall be printed—without reference to what any individual might consider news.

These people are the censor-minded. They appear in government and in pressure groups. They include those who try to conduct government behind closed doors and in secret places. They are all those who would take away free access to information which the citizen, with his individual right to say what is news, is entitled to have.

What baffles and frustrates the editor in the face of this is an attitude he not infrequently encounters among those who are being cheated of the right to decide for themselves what news is. When he talks about freedom of information, he often hears that what he really means is some undefined special privilege of his own. He is complaining, he is told, because his vanity is hurt.

What he rails against is nothing of the kind. His protests concern something he was never vain enough to do. That is, insist on deciding what news is without reference to what those who buy the news consider it to be.

National Newspaper Week's purpose will be served if you, the reader, pause to contemplate the big part you play in printing news and whether you are willing to have that part taken away from you. A sure way to lose it is to reason that when freedom of information goes the editor is the only loser. You lose far, far more than any editor possibly can.

The time situation in this country is more confused than ever. Part of the country never went on daylight saving time. Now part has dropped fast time and remains on it. Time still flies but you can't be sure in which direction.

The autumn leaves are really colorful this year. Such extravagance of hue will not be seen again until Aunt Sarah makes her annual selection of Christmas neckties for her favorite nephews.

A friend says that he finds it easier to cut new holes in his belt than he does to diet. When he runs out of belt, he says, he may decide to count calories—or take the easy way again and buy a bigger belt.

THE ROLE OF NIXON

Richard Nixon was nominated as Vice President because of his salutary work as a member of the House of Representatives where he served on the House Committee on Un-American Activities. He built a national reputation by his persistent investigation into the affairs of Alger Hiss until he got Whitaker Chambers to unearthen the "Pumpkin Papers." Without Nixon's persistence it is possible that Hiss might today be an important figure in American life with a mighty voice in our foreign policy.

As Vice President, Nixon has been able to exhibit few talents because a Vice President must not compete with the President for public recognition. Theodore Roosevelt and Henry Wallace sometimes forgot the etiquette of subordination and struggled against Vice Presidential obscurity, but Richard Nixon served diligently on the Eisenhower team, and was rewarded by inclusion in the Cabinet and the National Security Council over both of which he occasionally presided. President Eisenhower also employed him in ceremonial visits to foreign countries where the Vice President did exceptionally well as a public relations emissary. He has been more active than most Vice Presidents in the administration of the country.

Politically, Vice President Nixon could do very little to enhance his fortunes without violating his relations with the President. He played an exceptionally active role in the 1954 Congressional campaign, speaking over the country and antagonizing the Democrats, particularly the A.D.A. elements in that party. These are now his mortal enemies. For some reason of personality, when Nixon makes an enemy, it becomes personal rather than political. He is reputed to be disliked by such political figures as Harold Stassen, Milton Eisenhower and Nelson Rockefeller which, if correct, makes Nixon more palatable to most Republicans.

No one can now tell how long Eisenhower will be disabled. It may even be that he will not return to office in this term. It is almost certain that he will not run in 1956 despite all the wallings on the part of Len Hall, the Republican National Chairman, who will not have anything to say about it anyhow. The decision will be made by the President and probably was made some time ago when it was discovered that the President was having difficulties with his blood pressure as well as his temper. He is reputed to have decided to train Nixon to take over, which is laudable in an army officer but does not affect the Vice President's constitutional position.

Nixon may, during the next 15 months, preside at meetings of the National Security Council, the Cabinet and other high level officials, but he may not sign a treaty or make recommendations to Congress or sign commissions in the armed forces. He remains Vice President until he takes the oath as President and Eisenhower cannot hold the Presidency while delegating its responsibilities to anyone.

This situation places the Vice President in a very difficult position. Out of loyalty to Eisenhower, he carries on without authority. The men through whom he must work are not his men; they are the Eisenhower team. Nixon cannot take a position of his own, but he may not be able to ascertain, for a prolonged period, what Eisenhower's wishes are in many areas of public activity. He cannot, of course, turn to Eisenhower's official cabinet to Sherman Adams, or John J. McCloy, or Milton Eisenhower for guidance as to the President's wishes, but these are not always in agreement and how could he know whom to follow? He might even in time take a position of his own, but this would lead to an inner conflict in the Eisenhower group.

The Founding Fathers apparently did not foresee such an eventuality as a President being sick without being disabled. They did not envisage such a situation as Woodrow Wilson's illness produced, or, for that matter, Franklin D. Roosevelt's secret sickness to which many attest now who were silent when it was important. The Founding Fathers established a standard by which a President would be ready to become President if the President died or became disabled. But they were skimp in their description of disabling possibilities.

At any rate, Nixon will have a long period of functioning as President in some degree because there is no one else to function with any degree of legitimacy, but without responsibility or authority. It is a startling situation for a great nation.

That Body of Yours

TREATMENT AT A SPA

Spas are, perhaps, better known and more often used in Europe than on this continent so that it comes as a bit of a surprise to read that over 300,000 persons visited the Saratoga Spa in New York state between 1932 and 1952. Of this number, 200,000 were under fifty years of age and 100,000 were over sixty.

A spa has been defined as an institution where Nature has provided remedial agents such as mineral waters or muds, where adequate facilities are available for their proper use, and where physicians are available to direct the program for the patient. Dr. Walter S. McClellan in the magazine Geriatrics states that treatment at a spa has a definite place in the rehabilitation of the elderly patient particularly. "Among the clinical problems of aging are found locomotive disorders of the rheumatic type, circulatory ailments, affections of the alimentary tract, and nervous system. Many, but not all, patients in these groups can be helped at the spa. Patients with rheumatoid arthritis or osteoarthritis provide the largest single group at spas. Often they come seeking results that cannot be obtained. However, many do have a reduction of swelling and pain, increased joint motion, and noticeable improvement in physical well-being."

It is advised that patients with rheumatoid arthritis who have an active process going on with fever, should seek home treatment until the active phase is over so that the stimulating program of spa treatment can be followed without relapse. For this group treatment should always be moderate.

For heart and blood vessel disorders, the physician will usually suggest a spa where the waters contain natural carbon dioxide, since this gas has a special influence on the circulation.

The internal use of mineral waters is most common in stomach and intestine conditions where there is underactivity of function or perhaps a production of digestive juices. This underactivity can be helped to a degree by the use of saline waters with carbon dioxide or hydrogen sulfide. These waters often will help the patient with lessened function in liver and gall bladder systems.

At the spa, the natural agents, mineral waters and muds, and other physical means are used in a treatment program which usually requires a visit of three to four weeks. The mineral waters may be used externally as baths, packs, or inhalations or may be taken internally. Additional treatments include sweating procedures, radiant light and heat, electric treatments, massage and exercise. To these may be added regulations of diet, proper rest and recreation. For the most benefit, the entire program should be outlined by a physician at the spa.

It has been said "Health in later maturity cannot be given; it must be earned." The visit to the spa with its regulated treatment program, can awaken in the patient a desire to earn better health. During his stay, the realization that he can do many things which he did not do before, provides the incentive to keep active when he returns home.

Larsen's Washington News Notebook

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

Washington—(NEA) — When the Big Four foreign ministers meet at Geneva next month, Washington and the other Western capitals will be deeply concerned over the future of Germany and its relation to general European security. Chancellor Adenauer's visit to Moscow did not ease but in fact complicated the Western task.

No one should be fooled by Washington's assertions that Adenauer scored a great victory at Moscow. The hardheaded experts are agreed he did not. But the 79-year-old German leader is a stalwart friend of the West, and we can do nothing publicly to damage his prestige and position.

Yet he gained nothing of major consequence from the Russians, and his visit seemed only to emphasize Soviet strength.

The Kremlin promised to return somewhat less than 10,000 German prisoners from World War II. Their fate, however important to Germany, can hardly be of more than secondary significance to the Russians. And there are signs Moscow may give the East German Communist regime, not Adenauer, credit for the prisoners' release.

IN EXCHANGE FOR THIS dubious gain, Adenauer agreed to establish diplomatic relations with the Soviet Union. He explained this partly on the ground that Germany cannot ignore the reality of so vast a nation.

He touched on another aspect of this matter and this is the one that should worry the West. By establishing relations with Russia, West Germany can deal directly with the Kremlin on the vital issue of German reunification.

This serves to stress Russia's great advantage on the question of unity. It is the only nation which can hope to deal first-hand with both East and West Germany. More than that, it is the only one which can offer unity, since it controls East Germany. The West can merely propose it, offering such lures as general European security pacts to calm Russian fears of an independent unified Germany.

THAT IS WHAT Western ministers are expected to present again at Geneva. But the indications are that Russia will not be impressed. Soviet leaders stubbornly turned a deaf ear to Adenauer's unity pleas.

The price they would exact is Germany's withdrawal from NATO and the complete detachment of the nation from the Western orbit. This they will never get while Adenauer is in command.

What frightens the West, and many Germans, too, is what may happen after Adenauer dies. The Communists show every evidence of having the patience to wait, believing that their advantages will one day pay off.

The West had to toil hard and long to win Germany to its side. Keeping it there may be an even more difficult task.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

Rome—There is something wrong about our State Department.

I date back to the time when Bryan was acting the clown with the trained seals and Swiss bell-ringers in a tent-show under Wilson, but no such nastiness ever was tolerated as still goes on under the present administration. This furtiveness and sneakiness were characteristic of the Roosevelt-Truman regime, but why does it carry over, unabated and with snarling impudence? Certainly the British would not permit anyone in their foreign office to send lectures of doubtful propriety and anti-British or un-British theatrical shows touring foreign countries at public expense to defame their society and culture. The motto "Be British" is still respected.

Recently, one William Faulkner arrived in Rome. He is an author, whose writing to the extent of my contact is as filthy as any thing ever crawled on any wall in any language. Faulkner got the Nobel Prize, whose moral and literary standards might well be called up for inspection by the American nation. He is one of those misanthropic southerners who depict southern life, morals and character in disgusting terms.

When he came to Rome he took the position that the United States must wipe out absolutely and soon if not right now a demarcation between our white and colored people which is the result as much of despotic oppression of the southern white man by Yankee scoundrels in reconstruction days as the result of mutual racial aloofness in those concerned.

Faulkner came to Europe under a subsidy from the State Department as a cultural agent to enlighten Europeans regarding our culture. Our culture has no definition and is no business of the State Department. Faulkner had been in Japan for a season and he left Italy for Munich and other stops.

The same State Department could never be persuaded to send over T. R. Waring, editor of the News and Courier of Charleston, S. C., if he could be induced to make the trip, to present the intricate and delicate problems and the legal and personal basis for the attitude of millions of Americans whose patriotic record suffers nothing by comparison with Faulkner's.

There is a small paper in Rome called the Daily American. Ray (L.C.V.) Vir Den bought it cheap a couple of years ago from Doris Duke. He is a New York advertising man. He told me he had collected half-a-million dollars in settlement of an employment contract and he had other connections which made him comfortable. He said he would present an over-all flop. It ran two weeks in Rome and laid an egg. Turin is the Detroit of Italy. In Milan, "Porgy" was worked into a regular series at La Scala and did fairly well.

Even Italians who knew English didn't get the dialect. Musical opinion generally was adverse. It was spoken of as "dark" music. The show played France and Germany, too, financed in part out of a fund of $5 million voted to President Eisenhower at the prompting of Broadway-Hollywood individuals who have always had trouble avoiding connections with Communists. The same fund is supposed to pay for participation in trade fairs.

"Oklahoma" lost money but a private promoter was on the hook here, expecting to make a little. The Italian management had political relations with left-wing Socialists associated with the Communists.

The State Department has many individual holdovers from the day in 1939 when A. A. Berie thought he had done his duty by passing on to his friends of the Acheson-Hiss "pro-Russian" clique, as he called it, the terrible story of Alger Hiss told him in private by Whitaker Chambers. Thereafter, it remained secret until Chambers kicked on the door demanding to be heard after the war.

Not only individuals but State Department "policies" still express the sullen off-American attitude toward the United States. And that is the dominant note of the "culture" which is being shipped over the world to represent our nature, our morals, ideals and conduct. (Copyright, 1955, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Oct. 3 (AP) — Robert Murphy, deputy U.S. Undersecretary of state, left Belgrade today after a week of talks which Yugoslav circles believe launched closer American-Yugoslav cooperation in economic, military and political affairs. Murphy saw top Yugoslav leaders during his stay, including President Tito. A joint communiqué said "differences of opinion have been settled and a clearer understanding of objectives has been reached."

Urge Pinay to Turn Tables On Reds Over 'Colonialism'

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Oct. 2.—At last the "cold war" has reached a climax in which the Western nations can once more take the initiative. The withdrawal of France from the current sessions of the United Nations Assembly in New York marks the emergence of the West from the anesthetic of fancied security administered last July by the Russians at Geneva.

For now the mask has been torn away and the Communists have been revealed as the organizers inside the United Nations of an anti-Western bloc of Asian and Arab nations growing out of the Bandung conference. The vote of 28 to 27 in the United Nations Assembly to throw open to discussion what France considers an internal problem—the disaffection in her colony in Algeria—means that by a majority vote of nations, many of which are under totalitarian rule or control, the United States, Great Britain and France have been defeated and made to appear as opposed only to the discussion of the question instead of its implications as a precedent. But on the very same day Moscow was proclaiming her right to sell arms to Egypt and was declaring that any effort to thwart the sale is an interference with the internal affairs of Egypt. Such hypocrisy emphasizes the double standard practiced by the Soviets in trying to get the Algerian issue aired in the United Nations. Antoine Pinay, foreign minister of France, wisely withdrew his delegation. What's more, this correspondent is informed that M. Pinay doesn't intend to go to Moscow this month as planned, and neither does Premier Edgar Faure.

THE FRENCH delegation will go to Geneva for the Big Four Foreign Ministers' conference but this is in conformity with the desire to present a united front along with Great Britain and the United States against Soviet Russia.

France is 100 per cent right in her attitude in pulling out of the UN sessions. For the UN must never be used by a bloc of nations as an instrument of complicity that can provoke a war.

M. Pinay has a wonderful opportunity to turn the tables on the Russians. He might agree, indeed, to the principle of discussion of Algeria or any other problem of that kind in North Africa if it can be demonstrated that the peace of the world is threatened there, which of course, is not true. But at the same time the French Foreign Minister might insist that if the principle of discussing internal affairs is applied, it should be first considered with respect to those nations which have already won their independence and proved themselves capable of self-government but which have lost their liberties and their sovereignty due to usurpation of control by Moscow and by the international Communist party.

CERTAINLY THERE is little use talking about granting freedom to small colonies in North Africa if, when they get their independence, as in the case of Egypt, they immediately fall prey to the Communist influence in the world and the increase rather than diminish tension.

This has just happened between Egypt and Israel. As long as Communist totalitarianism exists, the world hasn't been made safe for any democracy. If the United Nations, moreover, is to retain true to the principles of its charter it must make sure that all countries which are members are free from threats of aggression, inevitably Soviet Russia as an aggressor comes up for trial herself. Her record in instigating the Korean War and then in brazenly sending arms and supplies to the Chinese Communists so they could intervene against the United Nations in that war is well known.

The world would have an opportunity to discuss all these subjects if the French government chose now to accept the principle of discussion on condition that priority is given to the many instances of frustration by Moscow of nationalist aspirations in the countries behind the Iron Curtain. Certainly if Soviet Russia were willing to open up to examination by United Nations commission all the denials of justice and the enforced slavery of individuals in Latvia, Lithuania, Estonia, Poland, Rumania, Hungary, Bulgaria and Czechoslovakia there might be something accomplished to rid the world of any democracy of colonialism that prevails there today. It could be the forerunner of a similar study of the conditions in Asia where countries like Indonesia and India, recently granted independence, are still under pressure by Communist blocs within their gates.

BY INSISTING that they will discuss North Africa after the safety of the peoples in the satellite countries of Eastern Europe is assured, the French can strike a real blow for human freedom in the propaganda battles of the "cold war."

For, despite the smiles of the Russians during the Geneva conference and since then in what nowadays is ironically described by Moscow as "the Geneva spirit," the Communists have been increasing the tension in the "cold war." They have exploited the North African situation, forcing French troops to be withdrawn from the continent and thus weakening NATO. They have added fuel to the flames between two allies of the West—Turkey and Greece. Now they have taken sides in the Egyptian-Israel controversy by offering to arm Egypt for war. This has increased the tension in the Middle East.

The hoped-for "relaxation of tension" in the world, therefore, has been torpedoed by the Moscow government. Hence the opportunities are opened up for the West to place the blame squarely on the Communist intriguers and infiltrators and thus show the oppressed peoples that the West not only has not forgotten them but is alert to the true meaning and purpose behind the Soviet pretense of the so-called doctrine of "peaceful coexistence." INFLATION IS POPULAR

Ten days ago the Dow-Jones industrial stock averages were at an all-time high, reflecting the twenty-year-old inflation. Since President Eisenhower's illness, prices have been erratic, but it is doubtful if the fundamental basis of America's prosperity will be greatly changed. It is still pertinent to ask: "Will inflation stop, and, as a consequence, will stock prices decline?"

In America there are two schools of economic thought about inflation. Both are represented by leading economists. Broadly speaking, one school believes the country should return to the gold standard, curtail price subsidies, cut federal expenditures and balance the budget.

The other school believes the gold standard has outlived its usefulness. It feels unbalanced budgets and deficit financing have their place in the national economy, that the dollar is the servant and not the slave of man.

NOW, MAKE NO mistake about it: one of the schools will have its way. If the gold standard school wins, deflation will ensue in America. Painful readjustments of prices, wages and costs will result. I'm convinced the American people would not willingly suffer the economic travail such readjustments would bring about.

If I thought the first school would win, I would sell all my stocks and buy bonds. The Dow-Jones averages would take a big tumble.

In my opinion, the second school will have its way.

Inflation is popular in America. The man in the street doesn't give a hoot whether America is on the gold standard or not. As for balancing the budget and stopping deficit financing, he cares little about that.

I talk to many union men. Most are unconcerned about high prices. The best antidote of high prices is high wages. Consequently, the average worker who has the wage-protection of his union doesn't worry too much about prices.

Inflationary wages balance off inflationary prices.

Every segment of the national economy has its political friends, many in Washington. They will see to it no dangerous deflationary forces are allowed to develop. Agricultural prices, for instance, will be a political issue in 1956.

A gold-backed dollar, "living within our means," a balanced budget, lower taxes—these are all grand things to talk about. But in inflationary times, peoples' patience is tried if, in putting them into practice, prosperity falls off.

Therefore, considering the state of the national economy and the temperament of many citizens, I would guess the Dow-Jones industrial stock averages could more easily go up to 583 than down to 383.

In a piece next week I shall discuss why I would rather buy sound common stock—even at all-time-high prices—than let my dollars deteriorate still further under the impact of inflation.

It is a perilous time for neophyte investors to enter the stock market. All the blue-chips are selling high. And when an inexperienced stockholder buys at high prices only to see his

Nicosia Head Arrives

Nicosia, Cyprus, Oct. 3 (AP)—Field Marshal Sir John Harding flew into Nicosia under a security screen today to take control of this troubled British crown colony. Nicosia residents ignored the arrival of the new governor, who says his first task will be to restore order to the East Mediterranean island and "then maintain it." No one was allowed on the airport without a special security permit when Harding's big Royal Air Force plane touched down.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

South Dakotan In Neat Slam

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

Twenty years ago, most of America's fine bridge players lived in New York or Philadelphia, and few players in the Midwest had ever seen a bridge tournament. Today there are good bridge players all over the country, and hundreds of experienced tournament players will turn up in Sioux Falls, S.D., this weekend to play in a Canadian-American regional tournament!

Many of these players are strong enough to give a good account of themselves in any tournament. For example, take today's hand, played by Cliff Manderscheid of Sioux Falls.

Most good partnerships would manage to reach a contract of six hearts on the North-South cards. Manderscheid was interested in a grand slam until his partner showed only one king by bidding six diamonds in response to five no-trump. (North would have bid six hearts with two kings, under the Blackwood Convention, and then South would have bid seven.)

The trick was to make the small slam. Most players would lead the first trump from dummy to finesse the queen. This finesse would lose to the singleton king.

as the cards lie, and South would later lose a second trump trick.

Manderscheid won the first trick with the ace of spades and immediately led the ace of trumps. When the king fell, there was no further problem. Declarer had to give up one trump trick, but his slam was safe.

The play of the ace of trumps was a safety play. If the king didn't drop, Manderscheid planned to enter dummy with a diamond and lead a heart

New and increased benefits at no increase in rates for Blue Shield members!*

All Blue Shield members will receive these benefits as of October 1st:

- Now—more help toward the cost of surgical care!
- Now—surgical benefits for babies from birth!

Surgical-Medical and General Medical Plan members will receive these benefits:

- Now—days of medical care in the hospital increased from 112 to a maximum of 201!
- Now—an allowance toward consultation with a specialist in the hospital (formerly not provided under Surgical-Medical Plan)!

PLUS OTHER BENEFITS LISTED BELOW!

The membership of Blue Shield has grown to more than 3,500,000 in the Greater New York area. This great rise in Blue Shield membership has made it possible to provide these additional benefits at no extra cost to you!

New and increased benefits

Now—automatically added to Blue Shield coverage, are all of these new and increased provisions:

1. Radiation therapy for malignancies treated in or out of the hospital.
2. Electro-shock therapy in or out of hospital.
3. Formerly babies did not become eligible for surgical benefits until 90 days of age. Now—surgical care for babies under Family Membership is provided from birth onward, except for circumcision of a child less than 90 days old.
4. Higher allowances for many surgical procedures to provide more help toward the cost of surgical care.

In addition, Blue Shield members who have Surgical-Medical or General Medical Plan protection will automatically gain the following increased benefits:

5. Formerly when you entered the hospital for medical care, you were eligible for allowances up to $274 for 112 days. Now—you are eligible for $452 for 201 days, towards your doctors' visits.

6. Formerly babies under Family Membership did not become eligible for medical care in the hospital until 90 days of age. Now—babies under Family Membership are eligible for medical care in the hospital from birth onward—for illness or injury, except for prematurity and circumcisions.

7. Consultation care in the hospital—now extended to subscribers with Surgical-Medical Plan protection. The allowance is for one consultation during each nonmaternity hospital admission for medical or surgical care when a specialist is called in (formerly only under General Medical Plan).

Blue Shield is the plan your doctor wants you to have

When you are a Blue Shield member, you are free to go to your own doctor. You don't have to give up your family's old, established relationship with him.

And you need never feel that you are asking your doctor for favors. Each time you use the services provided under your Blue Shield membership, your doctor gets paid for it... a specific fee for each service.

Blue Shield has the support and co-operation of all 17 County Medical Societies in the Greater New York area. Only Blue Shield has this official medical endorsement.

* The new benefits are effective for care rendered on or after October 1, 1955. However, benefits other than increases in surgical care allowances are not automatically effective for a relatively small number of subscribers under Special Group Contracts which are negotiated on an annual basis.

If you do not have Blue Shield protection—here are two ways to enroll Group: Ask your employer how you can get low-cost Blue Shield Group enrollment.

Nongroup: Apply, as an individual, for Nongroup enrollment if you are under age 65 and are self-employed (with no other employees), not employed, or work where there are fewer than four employees.

Get all the information you need to join Blue Shield by calling Blue Shield at Murray Hill 9-2800; or write United Medical Service, 80 Lexington Ave., New York 16, N. Y., Dept. N-46.

Three basic Blue Shield contracts

There are three basic plans to help you pay your doctor bills for surgical and medical care.

The first is called the Surgical Plan. It helps you pay your doctor's fee for surgical care whether in the hospital, home or doctor's office.

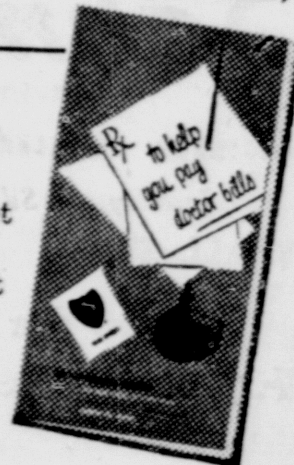

The second is the Surgical-Medical Plan. It includes surgical care, then adds allowances to help pay your doctor when you go to the hospital for nonsurgical treatment.

The third, the General Medical Plan, available under special group enrollment conditions, adds even further allowances. It helps pay the bill when you visit the doctor's office, or when he comes to your home.

In addition, new Blue Shield EXTENDED BENEFIT protection offers medium and large-sized groups coverage written especially for their own group needs. If they want even more protection than the basic plans offer, they can have it!

Ask your doctor for this booklet

This Blue Shield booklet tells you all about Blue Shield protection—what it costs—how to enroll

Blue Shield® for doctor bill protection...

MRS. CHARLES WILLIAM ENGEL

Lawrence-Engel Nuptials Are Held

Miss Elizabeth Ann Lawrence, daughter of Mrs. John Russell Lawrence and the late Mr. Lawrence, became the bride of Charles William Engel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Engel, Saturday, Oct. 1, at a nuptial Mass in St. Joseph's Church. The Rev. James Keating performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Frank Rafferty was at the organ and Robert Gallo sang several selections including, "Ave Maria," "Panis Angelicus" and "Mother Beloved."

The church was decorated with white pompons and the pews were marked with white satin bows.

Miss Lawrence was given in marriage by her uncle, Myron T. Herick of Queens Village, L. I. She wore a white taffeta gown, with a long torso and long pointed sleeves. The scoop neckline was embroidered with flowers and the bouffant skirt was floor length with a slight sweep train. The bride wore a bridal cap of shirred tulle and Venise lace trimmed with seed pearls to which was attached her circular chapel length French illusion veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and white pompons.

In the bridal party was Miss Ellen Roach of Kingston as the maid of honor and the bridesmaids included Kathleen Lawrence, sister of the bride and Jeannine Ryan.

Ronald Lord, cousin of the bridegroom was the best man and Joel Brink of Lake Katrine and Stanley Edinger of Kingston were the ushers.

A reception was held at the Alpine and the couple left for a wedding trip to New York city and Washington, D. C.

The bride is a graduate of the Academy of St. Ursula and is now a service representative for the New York Telephone Company. The groom is a graduate of Kingston High School and is associated in business with his father.

Business Can Grow

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 3 (AP)—The American Bakers Assn. was told today the nation's giant food industry can boost its present sales nearly 50 per cent in the next 10 years. In a talk prepared for the annual ABA convention, Paul G. Willis of New York said food industry sales can grow from the present $6 billion dollars a year to $8 billion by 1960 and $9 billion by 1965. Willis, president of the Grocery Manufacturers of America, said this predicted growth is only potential. "The grocery industry will continue to grow only if the people in it make it grow," he said.

Oklahoma Floods

Oklahoma City, Oct. 3 (AP)—Heavy rains which pushed the North Canadian river two feet above flood stage forced the evacuation of more than 75 persons from Lowlands in the southern part of Oklahoma City last night. The rains swept over central, western and northern Oklahoma. Creek waters spilled over their banks and four state roads were forced to be closed. The heaviest rainfall was measured at Kingfisher where almost 5 inches fell. Police and firemen removed families in Oklahoma City and Red Cross units were called to assist.

Anthony Palazzo has been on a vacation.

Danes Arrest Worker

Copenhagen, Denmark, Oct. 3 (AP)—The Danish government has arrested a Danish defense worker on charges of espionage for an unspecified foreign power.

It was the first such case in Denmark since World War 2. Announcement did not name the employee but said a preliminary court hearing had taken place following the arrest Saturday by Copenhagen police.

Authorities refused to comment further on the case. It was understood the Police Intelligence Service, which made the announcement, had the suspect under observation for a long time.

WOODSTOCK NEWS

Foundation Benefit

Fund Now Over $2,000

Woodstock, Oct. 3—Contributions since the presentation of the Woodstock Foundation show, "Fun-za Poppin'" early in September, have brought the final gross figure, without the tally of advertising, to slightly over $2,000. As the total expenses is not expected to exceed $400, the net proceeds will be approximately $1,600.

In line with the above, the Foundation wishes to remind the public at this time that it is: 1. A non-profit organization founded for the purpose of improving the quality of the practice of the arts, offers a limited number of annual awards, tenable under the most liberal conditions, for research and practice in the arts and for creative work in any of the arts.

2. Candidates for awards will be limited to men and women of unusual creative ability in the arts and crafts who are American citizens and residents of Woodstock township and the Maverick, and who shall not be less than 21 years of age and not more than 40 years of age, with few exceptions.

3. The committee of selection will require evidence that candidates are persons of unusual capacity for that they are persons of unusual and proven creative ability in some one of the arts and crafts.

4. In any given year, no trustee shall be a member of the committee of selection who has nominated or recommended a candidate for an award. At the discretion of the board, the committee may consist of or include persons who are neither trustees or general members.

5. No member of the board of trustees or any officer shall be eligible for an award.

Adams Carrying Work Burden at Denver Capital

By DON WHITEHEAD

Washington, Oct. 3 (AP)—A gray-haired, square-jawed fellow who tips the scales at only 150 pounds has moved into the presidential headquarters at Denver to take charge during the convalescence of President Eisenhower. His name is Sherman Adams.

Quietly and with his usual off-stage manner, Adams has shifted from Washington into his accustomed place of authority near the President.

This single action, more than any other perhaps, has dramatized the decision by key administration officials to keep things moving as nearly as possible along accustomed lines pending the President's return to active duty.

He's one of the most interesting figures in government, this man Adams whose actual size doesn't reflect his heavyweight influence. It is generally agreed it would be difficult to say where Adams' influence at the White House ends and the President's begins in the day-to-day decisions of government.

THE REASON for this lies in his position as the President's unofficial "chief of staff" and in the fact that the President obviously places complete trust in him.

Almost everybody who sees the President during working hours must arrange it with "Sherm," whose official title is assistant to the President. Adams is the man who sees Eisenhower from day to day more than anyone else. He interprets the President's wishes to cabinet members and to others. He is in a position to encourage or discourage a course of action proposed to the President.

Adams has said he regards himself merely as an instrument to relieve the President of as many burdens of his office as he possibly can. He works long hours, usually arriving at his desk at 7:30 a. m. every week day. He rarely shows up on the Washington cocktail circuit.

ONE WASHINGTON hostess has said: "What can you do to a man who gets up at 5:30 and goes to bed at 8:30?"

It probably is significant that the five-foot, eight-inch Adams once successfully bossed more than 600 lumberjacks in the Vermont woods. And he made his authority stick.

In one brief span of time, a log knocked out his front teeth; a horse kicked him in the face, fracturing his frontal sinuses; and a piece of pulp wood fell 60 feet, smacked him behind the left ear, and partially deafened him.

A LESS DETERMINED man might have become discouraged with the lumber business at this point, but Adams went on to become one of the company's top officials. He entered politics in 1940 and served two terms in the New Hampshire Legislature and one term in Congress.

He served two terms as governor of New Hampshire.

Adams was one of Eisenhower's early supporters for the presidency and helped mastermind his nomination and election. Then he moved into the White House with Eisenhower.

Adams tries to be as anonymous as possible but he long ago was pegged as a potent influence in government. And there's no sign this influence has waned.

Want Ad Columns Tell Many Stories

No observance of National Newspaper Week would be complete without the recognition of one newspaper section that serves millions of readers all over the world.

It's the Want Ad section and it serves those millions of readers very well—finding them places to live and places to work, furnishing economical transportation through the columns which offer second-hand motorcycles, bicycles and used cars for sale.

There are a multitude of human interest stories in the Want Ad pages, too. An advertisement seeks the return of a lost dog—"children's pet." It requires little imagination to build up a whole story: complete from the desolation of the home deprived of a family companion to a hoped-for happy ending of its return.

Here are the opportunities to travel, people driving here and there across this expansive continent, ready to take companions.

Small but fascinating speculation can be wound about requests for part-time work. Perhaps they're from eager, ambitious juniors, or older folks piecing out annuities or pensions. Readers expect newspapers to present stories under headlines and in the ordered English of journalism. That's not the only way they are published, though. In a different form, they appear throughout the Want Ad columns.

Cornell University recently received a "grangerized" copy of a rare Charles Dickens biography from William G. Mennen. Based on a 1769 British tradition, "grangerized" means a biography which has blank pages for later pictures and letters to be added after publication.

INVITATION FOR FIANCEE

"A cousin of my fiancé is to be married shortly. I know the cousin and his bride-to-be well, having met them on several occasions. However, I did not receive an invitation to the wedding. My fiancé insists that I go with him to the wedding but I do not think it would be proper. He says that my presence will be taken for granted. Will you please advise me as to the proper thing to do under the circumstances?"

The proper thing is for your fiancé to take it for granted they intended to invite you and tell his family that you have not received your invitation. They will then certainly invite you.

When Mother Writes

Dear Mrs. Post: My son is not engaged but he sees a good deal of one particular young woman who lives in the town where he is now working. She has been home with him to spend two week ends and both times has written me very nice letters afterward. I would like to write a letter to her, and wondered how I should sign my name to this letter and what to call my husband when I refer to him or send his best regards to her.

Answer: You sign your letter Mary Jane Smith and you refer to your husband as "John's father."

Hat to Funeral Home
Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please tell me if it is proper for a woman to go to a funeral home, hatless, when going to pay her respects to members of the deceased's family. A friend and I have been having an argument about this and we would like you to settle it for us.

Answer: It is more correct to wear a hat.

When and how the families of the engaged couple meet and other questions about engagements are answered for you in Mrs. Post's leaflet E-1, "Engagements." Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, c/o The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

Postal Speedup

Washington, Oct. 3 (AP)—The AFL Federation of Post Office Clerks today accused the Post Office Department of imposing a "speedup system" on postal workers which threatens a complete breakdown of the postal service.

E. C. Hallbeck, the union's legislative director, made the charge in the October issue of the organization's monthly magazine, "The Union Postal Clerk." He said the "speedup" has been put into effect under cover of the department's work performance standards program instituted two years ago.

Names Atomic Council

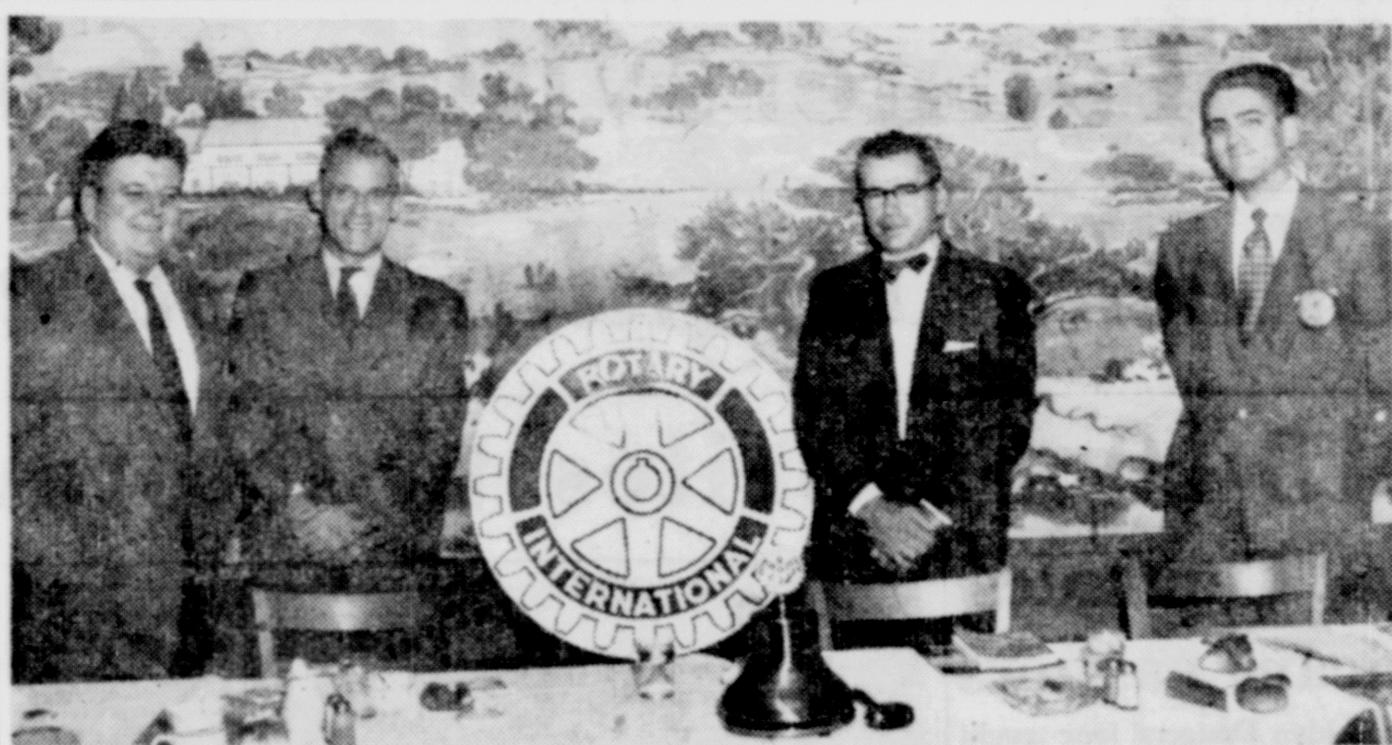

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 3 (AP)—Gov. Harriman has formed a council of the heads of three state departments to coordinate policies on the use of atomic energy.

Health Commissioner Herman E. Hilleboe, Industrial Commissioner Isador Lubin and Commerce Commissioner Edward T. Dickinson were named to the group Saturday. Harriman said that the recent issuance by the Atomic Energy Commission of rules for licensing private industries to use nuclear materials had increased the need for such a state body.

To Study Expansion

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 3 (AP)—Gov. Harriman has appointed an advisory committee to study ways of expanding home rule for cities and villages. Harriman said in announcing the action yesterday that he doubted the study could be completed this year but that "a start can be made."

The governor said he created the committee, which will advise him on recommendations to be made to the Legislature, on the advice of Morgan Strong, executive secretary of the New York State Conference of Mayors.

Home Bureau Hears J. Burroughs Speak

Joseph Burroughs, specialist in child development and family relationships from the New York State College of Home Economics at Cornell, met recently with the family life committee of the county to discuss responsibilities of unit leaders and sponsors. The committee was joined later by the chairman of study clubs at which time the group as a whole evaluated the present program of work and made plans for extending the activities in the future.

Any young woman or a group of women interested in studying some phase of child development or family relationships may secure the necessary help by requesting it from the County office at 220 Wall street, where copies of all courses of study are available along with some of the materials needed for reference. An experienced person will be assigned to a new group to give necessary help in organization.

Plans were made to have a county-wide achievement day in the spring when clubs can exchange ideas of accomplishments. Members of the family life committee present were: Mrs. Millard Davis, Kerhonkson; Mrs. John Lathrop, Kerhonkson; Mrs.

Oscar Kaffka, Lomontville; Mrs. Cloyd Elias, Stone Ridge; Mrs. Joseph Matey, Kingston; Mrs. Hubert Ster-Montagny, Gardiner; Mrs. Joseph Friedberg, West Shokan; and Miss Everice Parsons, County Home Demonstration agent.

Study club chairman or representatives present were: C. to C. Mrs. Robert Greer; Child Understanding, Mrs. Eleanor Keator; E. K. A. Mrs. Millard Davis; Forest Glen, Mrs. Fred Begelspiker; Kingston III, Mrs. T. A. A Little Touching Up

By FRANK TRIPP

"The kitchen isn't exactly shabby," she said, "—just the woodwork needs a little touching up."

I couldn't dispute that too much and since our painter was working nearby, and could drop in and do it, I fell for this minor improvement.

Well, the painter came over to dash a bit of paint on the kitchen woodwork—and, like the man who came to dinner, he stayed three weeks; he and two helpers.

He lives to be a hundred, probably my last act of senility will be to believe that a decorator can do any one thing without creating at least two other jobs for himself. Which he can't, and I suspect, wouldn't if he could.

Of course, when he picked out the kitchen paint the color had to be changed. I now see that her decision was premeditated. Fanny is no dumbbell when it comes to colors.

She let the painter go ahead with the new color, let him put on two coats. Then she suddenly discovered, when the painting was all done, that it didn't go with the wallpaper.

Okay, so we repaper the kitchen; which had an inspiring red in it, that I liked very much.

THE ALIBI I GOT for not having any red in the new paper was that that was not a "red" year. The absence of red in the new paper was disastrous to me. It seems that wallpaper has color years, or something. Now, remember, I'm only telling what Fanny said when she saw I was disappointed.

She's reliable as a rule but I begin to think that she was taking advantage of my ignorance of any kind of paper except newspaper. And I've been accused of being ignorant about that.

The red we had to have isn't being used in the wallpaper this year, says Fanny. "It's all on the pink," she said, "and you know how you hate pink."

So the new paper was green, with some blue and gray in it. Yet when our friend, the decorator, got it on I had to admit that I liked the finished product.

IT'S GORGEOUS, isn't it?" said Fanny in her sales talk. I bought, said I liked it too. Then came denouement of that woman's deliberate plan to completely refinish everything that I'd stand for. I'd been through it before but suckerlike just began to wake up.

The thing had gone so far that there was no retreat. Not only that, I didn't have a leg to stand on by then. The clash between the new paper and the otherwise perfectly good linoleum around the sink and back of the stove was atrocious.

Something had to be done about it. If Leonardo da Vinci or Michelangelo should happen along, it might be that we could doll up the linoleum to keep company with the new wallpaper.

I can see just what's coming. In sheer desperation—which she knows will develop in due time —Fanny will have new linoleum. So next comes the linoleum man.

THERE'S A PASSAGE off the kitchen. It's a two-story well affair with back stairs and the cellar way off of it. When the kitchen got all done and we opened the door the contrast, even to me, was mildly shocking.

Over the walls and up the back stairs merrily went the painters. I stood up there with a shotgun. I guarded the door that opened into the upstairs hall and dared any man to pass. That was my last stand.

They painted down the cellar stairs, but never got through that door opening on the second floor.

The painters at last were gone; to "just touch up the woodwork" for a hapless neighbor.

Saugerties High Rout Tannersville, 26-6 for 2nd Win

Four Players Register TDs For Sawyers

Saugerties High School notched its second football victory of 1955 Saturday at the Tannersville field, routing the home forces by 26-6.

Coach Bill Straub's Sawyers scored two touchdowns in the opening period and added another pair in the fourth. The Tanners tallied in the second.

Neither team presented a formidable attack. The Sawyers gained 100 yards rushing and half that sum through the air. Saugerties' linemen held Tannersville to 40 yards on the ground. The losers made only 11 on passes. Saugerties led 7-5 in first downs.

Tony Francello ran back a pass interception 35 yards for the initial Sawyer score. Don Whitaker's placekick was wide.

CAPTAIN JACK Patterson registered later in the period on a three-yard line buck. Jim Erecg's 25-yard gallop had put the ball in scoring position. On the point attempt Whitaker, rushed by the THS line, passed to Maurice Hinchey.

Tannersville quarterback Vanucci scored in the second, going over on a five-yard run. The scoring drive started when Saugerties fumbled on the home team's 40. The kick attempt was wide.

Saugerties recovered a fumble on the Tannersville 18 early in the fourth period. Murray Craft scored on a run from the two-yard line. Whitaker booted the point.

Craft and John Kerin teamed up on a pass play covering 40 yards for the final touchdown. Kerin caught the toss on the six and zipped across. The placekick was low.

The lineups:

Saugerties	Pos.	Tannersville
Hinchey	LE	Phillips
Dragon	LT	Robinger
Dietz	LG	Kerr
Ash	C	Martin
Westergard	RG	Pierce
Whitaker	RT	Chimato
J. Kerin	RE	Meade

Attendance Up At Yonkers Raceway

Yonkers, Oct. 3 (AP)—Both attendance and betting are higher than the previous year at Yonkers Raceway for the first eight weeks of the current meeting.

Attendance is up 6.4 per cent with 938,304 total spectators and an average of 19,964, compared to 1954's 881,759 and 18,761, track officials said last night. Total betting so far is $57,386,854 and $1,220,979 average as against $54,407,428 and $1,157,605.

The track also announced an earlier post time for the first race, 8:25 p. m. (EDT), starting tonight. The meeting has six weeks to go.

Pine Plains Hands Paltz Second Loss

Pine Plains Central School handed New Paltz Central's football team its second straight defeat Saturday, winning by 13-0 at the Plains gridiron.

New Paltz, beaten by Onteora in its opening game, made only one scoring threat.

The Hugenots made their scoring bid in the final period on a long pass play, Tom Roberts flinging to Darrel Harp. The aerial gave New Paltz a first down on the Pine Plains 25, but the drive petered out.

THE PLAINSMEN tallied in the first and second periods. A back New Paltz punt, with Pine Plains taking over on the NP 12, set up the first tally.

Bob Case bucked over from the two. Dick Moore's placement was partially blocked.

In the second session, Fran Bartolomeo scooted 22 yards after taking a handoff from Case. Case passed to Moore for the extra point.

Pine Plains had the edge in first downs, 10 to five, and in yards gained, 175 to 140.

The lineups:

New Paltz	Pos.	Pine Plains
Brooks	LE	Harrington
Benjamin	LT	Moore
Congelosi	LG	Finkle
Heidgerd	C	Darling
Biedoff	RG	Menti
Carroll	RT	Cahill
Harp	RE	Case
Roberts	QB	Bartolomeo
Rasmussen	LH	Teator
Kelly	RH	Homann
Power	FB

The score by quarters:

New Paltz	0	0	0	—0
Pine Plains	6	7	0	—13

Mare Gives Birth at 30

London, Oct. 3 (AP)—Horse breeder Fred Unwin says his old gray mare Stephanie has given birth to a jet black filly at the unheard-of age of 30. "It's as though a human being had a baby when 120 years old," Unwin told a reporter. "But I bought Stephanie as a yearling myself in 1926 so there can be no doubt of her age."

Connie Mack, 92, on Road To Recovery After Mishap

Philadelphia, Oct. 3 (AP)—Baseball's beloved Connie Mack, in "remarkably good condition" at 92, is reported headed for a swift recovery today after suffering a fractured hip at his home over the weekend.

The veteran manager, who led his Philadelphia Athletics to five World Series championships, fractured his right hip while getting out of bed from his afternoon nap on Saturday.

His physician, Dr. Ilarion L. Gopadze, expressed satisfaction with the old gentleman's condition yesterday and barring complications, forecast a "speedy recovery" adding that Mack, who will be 93 Dec. 23, was in "remarkably good physical condition."

HE WILL REMAIN in Presbyterian Hospital for a few weeks, at least, Dr. Gopadze said, adding that he had spent a restful night and was "cheerful and not complaining of much pain."

Mack, born Cornelius McGillicuddy, was active player, owner, coach and manager for 71

Dodgers 13-10 Favorites to Capture Series

Snider's Big Bat Continues To Plague American Leaguers

New York, Oct. 3 (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers' long-sought goal—their first world baseball championship—appeared within sight today.

Having bounced back from the brink of elimination with three successive victories over the New York Yankees to take a 3-2 lead, the jubilant National Leaguers went out today to apply the crusher on their arch tormentors. Yesterday's 5-3 triumph over New York gave the Dodgers the lead for the first time in the Series.

The teams returned to the wide open spaces of Yankee Stadium, where the Dodgers dropped the first two games. In the compact and friendly confines of Ebbets Field, they captured the next three. From Manager Walter Alston down, the Brooks believe they can win at least one in the Stadium. If not today, then tomorrow for sure.

"Either Don Newcombe or Karl Spooner will be my pitcher," Alston said. "I can't make up my mind. But if there is a seventh game, Johnny Podres will pitch Tuesday."

Manager Casey Stengel of the Yankees had no doubt about his pitchers.

"Whitey Ford today and Tommy Byrne tomorrow," he stated flatly. "I am not predicting anything, except that it will go seven."

NEWCOMBE himself may make up Alston's mind for him. The Dodgers' 20-game winner, who lost the first game, complained that the stiffness in his arm hadn't left him.

The largest crowd of the series, some 65,000, is expected to watch the sixth game, starting at 12 p. m. (EST). The forecast was "fair and continued cool," with the temperature in the high 60's.

Although the Yankees were a 6-5 favorite to win today's game, the odds-makers, for the first time, made the Dodgers the choice to win the series... A standpoint 13 to 5.

Injuries to outfielders Mickey Mantle and Hank Bauer have stripped the Yankees of much of their attack and the Yankee bullpen has been of less service than anybody anticipated.

BAUER WAS expected to start in right field in today's game, however, game leg and all. If the left-handed Spooner pitches for Brooklyn, Bob Cerv will play center field and Elston Howard left. Both are right-handed hitters.

With a lefty going for the Yankees, the Dodgers also shifted lineups to get another right-handed hitter in there. Second baseman Junior Gilliam, a switch hitter, goes to left field with Don Zimmer, a righty, taking over second and Sandy Amoros, left fielder against right-handed pitchers, going to the bench.

Never before had a Brooklyn team won three in a row over the American Leaguers. Never in seven changes over 40 years, have the Dodgers won a world championship. Never has a team lost the first two games and come back to take the title inside seven games.

YESTERDAY'S victory was by far the sweetest for Alston. He gambled and won with a surprise starter in Roger Craig, a 24-year-old righthander who only a year ago was pitching in the Class C Piedmont League. The bony 6-4 righthander didn't last, but he yielded only four hits and two runs before he was yanked in the seventh.

Alston excused him after he was pulled out of the game, giving a home run by pinch hitter Cerv that cut the Dodgers' lead to 4-2. Clem Labine, Saturday's winner, then stalked in from the bullpen for his fourth appearance in the Series and threw a double play ball to Irv Noren.

Labine pitched almost perfect ball from then on, except for a home run by Yogi Berra and a single by Eddie Robinson in the eighth. In the ninth, he retired pinch hitters Andy Carey and Tommy Byrne and Howard on five pitches. All strikes.

ONCE AGAIN, it was the home run ball that ruined the Yankees. Bob Grim, the Yankee starter and loser, had good stuff but he looked especially good to Duke Snider and Amoros. Snider whacked two out of the park and Amoros contributed a two-run blast that got the Dodgers off and running in the second inning.

Snider's homers, each with the bases empty, were his third and fourth of the Series. In hitting his fourth in the present Series, it was the second time Duke accomplished the feat. Only Babe Ruth, in 1926 and Lou Gehrig, in 1928, accomplished the feat. Only Ruth, with 15 and Gehrig, with 10, hit more.

Just to prove their versatility, the Dodgers executed three double plays yesterday for a total of 10 to tie a Series record.

Army-Michigan Tilt Saturday Might Decide National Honors

(By The Associated Press)

There'll likely be some changes in the positions of the nation's top 10 college football teams this week but it's almost a lead pipe cinch that two of the honored group will clash head-on at Ann Arbor Saturday when the unbeaten forces of Army and Michigan come to grips.

It'll be the only game bringing together members of the top 10 on the basis of last week's rankings. And there was nothing in last Saturday's results, except for the 6-0 beating handed eight-ranked Ohio State by Stanford, that indicated wholesale shifting.

The Buckeyes, however, could well drop several notches because of their defeat by the unheralded Indians.

MICHIGAN, ranked second back of Maryland, just managed to squeeze past Michigan State 14-7 after romping over Missouri in its opening encounter. But the Wolverines figure to give the backfield-weakened Cadets the test that Penn State failed to furnish. Army, an easy opening game winner over Furman and then-ranked sixth, breezed past the Nittany Lions 35-6.

Ohio State was the only member of the top 10 that tasted defeat last Saturday.

The Buckeyes had beaten Nebraska 28-20 in their opener while the Indians had dropped a 10-0 decision to Oregon State the previous Saturday. On that basis the Big Ten boys figured to romp home behind the running of All-American Howard (Hopalong) Cassidy.

BUT THE CHUCK Taylor-coached Indians held Hopalong to a paltry 37 yards rushing and made a touchdown at the end of a 72-yard drive the first time they gained possession of the ball.

Maryland's No. 1 Terrapins hurled Baylor 20-6 with Frank Tamburello's pin-point passing a big factor in the victory.

Georgia Tech, No. 3 and probably the class of the South, breezed past Southern Methodist 20-7 while Notre Dame blanked Indiana 19-0 with quarterback Paul Hornung running 33 yards for one touchdown and pitching seven yards to sophomore end Dick Prendergast for another. The Irish ranked fourth.

Oklahoma (No. 5) made it 21 straight victories by turning back Pitt 26-14. UCLA, (No. 7) beaten the previous week by Maryland, took it out on Washington 55-0. Southern California (No. 9) downed Texas 19-7 Friday night and Texas Christian (No. 10) made a strong bid for Southwest Conference honors with a 26-0 decision over Arkansas' defending champions.

BESIDES Stanford's triumph over Ohio State the only other game that resembled an upset was Clemson's 26-7 walloping of Georgia. Not since 1914 had the Tigers beaten the Bulldogs.

Navy remained an Eastern power along with Army with a 26-0 blanking of South Carolina. The Middies go against what shapes up as more formidable opposition Saturday in Pitt.

Otherwise the ranking elevens should have comparatively easy pickings. Notre Dame is at Miami (Fla.) and UCLA at Oregon State in Friday night games.

THE HUNTINGTON Crescent Club course, over which the 36-year-old Evans turned in a 273 for 72 holes, is located some 50 miles from the center of New York city. Ray O'Brien, PGA supervisor, also assured the Rotarians of a better break in dates next year.

Red Wings Top All Stars, 3-1
Detroit, Oct. 3 (AP)—Rookie Goalie Glenn Hall held the All Stars scoreless until the final minutes while Dutch Reibel and Gordie Howe triggered the Detroit Red Wings to a 3-1 victory last night in the annual National Hockey League all star game at Olympia Stadium.

Montreal's Doug Harvey spoiled Hall's shutout bid by drilling in a low 65-footer at 16:38 of the final period. It would have been the first shutout in the nine-year history of the All-Star game.

Hall made 30 saves — 26 of them in the last two periods after Howe and Reibel had pushed the Wings to a 2-0 lead.

Colgate Moves Up Front Among Upstate Big Three

It will be upstate New York's Big Three against the Bay-State this Saturday, as Colgate, Cornell and Syracuse all take on teams from neighboring Massachusetts.

Unbeaten Colgate, which won a 21-6 encounter at Cornell last Saturday, will be pitted against Holy Cross at Hamilton.

Cornell's Big Red, with one victory and one loss on its record opens its Ivy League play at Harvard.

Syracuse, which was idle last weekend and sustained a loss the week before, resumes its schedule by playing host to Boston University.

COLGATE AND CORNELL had been rated about even by the experts prior to Saturday's game. But the picture was much different after it was over. The Big Red's only touchdown came in the final period, against the Colgate second stringers.

St. Lawrence broke a losing streak that had dogged it since 1953 by decisively downing Hofstra 19-0. Hobart overcame Allegheny 44-7.

Pizzeria Rips Economy 3-0 on Central Alleys

Broskie Cracks 639 for Locals

Tony's Pizzeria, 3-6 in the Hudson Valley League, until Saturday night, finally found the range on those luxurious 7-8 drives at the Central Recs and came up with a robust 2923 series to sweep three games from Economy Electrics of Ellenville.

Harold Broskie set the pace with 639 (194-220-225) as three of the Pizzeria trundlers hammered 600 triples. Larry Weisshaupt rocked 203-227-607 and Clid Howard posted 213-202-215-630. The big slam was 1021 in the third set. Goldberg shot 235-578 for Economy.

FORST PACKERS grabbed another important road victory with a 2-1 decision at Poughkeepsie's Tenpin Grill. Whitey Crispell hit 203-574.

Jones Dairy moved four games over the 500 mark with a 3-0 sweep over the Toupson Bowling Center at the Bowldrome.

Jack Ferraro led the Dairy-men with 224-215-629 and Jerry Oster achieved the hat trick with 224-215-629.

BIGGEST INDIVIDUAL blast of the weekend was Buster Ferraro's 660 series at Middletown where Rapp's Express won the middle set from the Merchants.

Ferraro topped games of 204, 235 and 221. Tom Carlini unloaded 257-599 and Joe Ruzzo 217-223-596. The locals hit 1016 in the middle game.

Joe Congolosi fired 214-210-224 for 648 and Bert Zimmermann 228-222-632 for Middletown which rolled 1037 in the opener.

MHS Stops TappanZee

Middletown High School scored a 12-6 victory over Tappan Zee of Piermont Saturday.

It was the Middies' first football victory.

Both Middletown touchdowns were scored in the first half. In the opening period, tailback Sherk Myers passed to Ted Brown on a play that consumed 70 yards.

In the second, Tom DePew intercepted a Tappan Zee pass and returned it 50 yards to paydirt.

Tappan Zee also turned an interception into a touchdown, snatching a toss in its 40 and finally going over on a line plunge in the third period.

The score by quarters: Middletown . . . 6 6 0 0-12 Tappan Zee . . . 0 0 6 0-6

Shokan

Shokan, Oct. 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Philip Chase of Putney, Vt., were callers in the village Thursday in the course of a visit to their place on Winchell Mountain.

The couple have recently returned from a trip to Colorado. Thursday, Sept. 29 marked the 32nd wedding anniversary of the Chases who recalled that they first came to this section on their honeymoon.

Tax Collector Harrison Gridley of the Ontario Central school district was greeted by many of his old Shokan friends at his stated sitting in the corner store Wednesday. Some of those who came to pay their taxes had been Harrison's pupils during the 18 years he taught the Ashokan school.

Clifton McMullen of Arkville was numbered among the Delaware county residents calling here Friday.

Mrs. Forest Slocum of Oneonta has been spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. John Heiser of the Ashokan mountain road.

Mrs. Heiser who suffered a broken arm some time ago, is now able to drive her car again.

Former Kingston residents in town recently were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Longyear of Phelps. The couple were returning home from Connecticut where they had been visiting their daughter and grandchildren. Mrs. Longyear, the former Rose Kemble, resided in the old village of Shokan as a girl.

Ralph Shultis of the town of Woodstock is assisting Patrick Kelly with construction of the latter's 4-room bungalow at the Longyear place adjoining the reservoir preserve on the south side of the old state road.

Mrs. James Giles, formerly of Shokan, was a caller Wednesday at the home of her brother, Gould Personne.

The Raymond Davis grading and excavating machines were in operation the fore part of the week on the Tappan Zee hillside field adjoining the Shokan post office on the northwest where the Fredenholms plan to build a motel.

The Clarence Elmdorfs with their new son have moved from the Ruckert apartments to a house on the Krumville road at Olive Bridge.

Blues Capture 33-20 Thriller From Newburgh

Poughkeepsie High School scored two touchdowns in the final two and one-half minutes to turn back a surprisingly strong Newburgh Free Academy football team Saturday, 33-20.

The Blues had a hard fight with the Goldbacks before gaining their first DUSO triumph at the NFA gridiron.

Poughkeepsie added the passing arm of George Phillips and the receiving of giant end Monty Sticks to the running feats of halfback Charley Johnson.

Phillips' 39-yard toss to Sticks into the end zone got the Blues in front 26-20 with time running out.

POUGHKEEPSIE added the insurance marker when Newburgh's desperate bid stalled on the NFA 30. Johnson scored on a run from that distance, with Phillips throwing a key block.

Phillips pegged to Johnson for the point.

Johnson and Co. found themselves held to a sole touchdown in the first half. Johnson passed 11 yards to Phillips for the TD, with Sticks placekicking the point.

Poughkeepsie rolled 74 yards for a touchdown after taking a second-half kickoff, with Phillips throwing 20 yards to Sticks for the score. Sticks added the point.

Newburgh, with halfback Charley McCurry giving a great performance, made a comeback. McCurry scored all the NFA touchdowns.

The first one was a 27-yard run with Bill Cotton adding the point.

JOHNSON'S FUMBLE on the PHS 44 set up the second NFA score. McCurry scored on a 22-yard run. The point try missed, with PHS leading 14-13 after three periods.

Johnson's 41-yard heave to Sticks resulted in the third PHS touchdown.

But Newburgh tied the score seven plays later, with McCurry tallying from the 13. Al Becacio's quarterback sneak tied the score. Then the Blues made their successful victory bid.

Newburgh out rushed the Poughkeepsians, 271 to 108. Poughkeepsie completed 12 of 18 passes for 299 yards. NFA gained naught in four overhead attempts.

The score by quarters: Poughkeepsie . . . 0 7 7 19-33 Newburgh . . . 0 13 7-20

ELLENVILLE NEWS

Local Priest Leaving For Ossining Parish

Ellenville, Oct. 3.—The Rev. Francis J. Kleindienst ends almost 12 years of service at St. Andrew's Church today when he leaves for his new assignment at St. Augustine's Church at Ossining. He is being succeeded by the Rev. Charles W. Bleach of St. Joseph's Church in New York city.

Mr. Bleach, who came here in 1944 as successor to the Rev. Joseph Geis, attended the preparatory seminary at Cathedral College from 1909 to 1915. St. Joseph's Seminary of Dunwoodie from 1915 to 1921, and was ordained on May 21, 1921 at St. Patrick's Cathedral.

Mr. Bleach served for 19 years at the Church of the Assumption in New York city; three years at St. Joseph's Church in Yorkville, and for the three months immediately preceding his assignment here, he was the administrator of St. Boniface Church, also in New York city.

The Rev. Donald Bernard Kelly, of the Redemptorist Fathers arrived here Thursday from South America to visit his mother, Mrs. Luella M. Quilty, housekeeper at St. Andrew's.

Father Quilty has spent two and a half years at Miranda, in the State of Mato Grosso, Brazil, and will be in the United States for three or four months on furlough and for study. His mother leaves today to accompany the Rev. Francis J. Kleindienst to his new charge at Ossining.

Village Notes

Ellenville, Oct. 3.—The regular monthly meeting of the Shawangunk Garden Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Deyo W. Johnson, Knoll Acres, at 2 p. m. A surprise speaker will talk on Christmas decorations. Anyone interested in learning to make a Christmas bow for a spray or wreath, is asked to bring three yards of ribbon.

The Ladies Bible Class of the Ellenville Reformed Church has been meeting regularly every month in the Sunday school room of the church. At each meeting there was a Bible study hour, a business meeting and a covered dish supper, or refreshments. The hostesses at the last meeting on Thursday were Mrs. George Tobel and Mrs. Viola Miller. The next regular meeting of the class will be Tuesday, Oct. 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Dingman of White Plains were guests at the Wayside Inn Sunday and Monday and visited their aunt, Mrs. Thomas Yarrow and cousin, Miss Grace Yarrow.

Mr. and Mrs. William Van Leuven and family and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Van Leuven and family of Woodbourne spent Monday with their mother, Mrs. Lillian Van Leuven and helped her celebrate her birthday.

Mrs. Shirley Fitzgerald entertained a few friends on Tuesday evening in honor of her daughter's 17th birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Evans of Mount Holly, N. J. spent Sunday with the former's brother, George Ray Evans, Mrs. Lillian Van Leuven and Mrs. Rose Van Leuven.

The first meeting of the Ellenville unit of the Home Bureau for the year 1955-56 was held at the Lutheran Church on Sept. 13. About 30 members gathered for a covered dish supper with Mrs. Edwin Brownell heading the committee. Mrs. Stern-Magnagay, of Gardiner, was guest speaker and spoke on South Africa, using slides.

Mr. and Mrs. Byard Fritts and two children of Tacoma, Wash., spent the weekend with their parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Doris E. Fritts at the Lutheran parsonage. They left Monday for Rochester where Mr. Fritts will study for his doctorate degree in music at the Eastman School of Music. The Fritts family had just returned from a tour of Alaska where Mr. Fritts was engaged to repair pipe organs at Ketchikan and Petersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Evald Bors-Koeft and Mrs. Doris E. Fritts attended a convention of the American Hospital Association at Convention Hall, Atlantic City, N. J. last week.

Miss Lenore Silverman of Northport, L. I. spent the holidays with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Miller. Mel Lubby has moved from the Woodside Convalescent Home to 51 North Main street.

George Chase, Frank Schoner, Mrs. Tracey Vanderlyn and Mrs. W. E. Saylor attended a meeting of the Clinton Chapter of the Eastern Star Friday night in Kingston at which time Past Patrons and Past Matrons night was observed.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Sears, of Ellenville, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Coomey of Monticello spent the weekend at the Springfield Exposition where Mr. Sears exhibited his Palomino horse.

Mrs. Dorothy H. Sanderson attended a meeting of the editorial committee of the Directory of Libraries of Ulster, Sullivan, Dutchess, Rockland and Orange Counties Thursday evening at the Newburgh Free Library.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sanderson and Benjamin H. Terwilliger attended the races at Yonkers on Monday.

Mrs. Henry Nesbitt of this village and her sister, Mrs. Roy Rogers of Middletown left Tuesday to spend a few days at Lake George.

Miss Bernice Gray of Lynbrook, L. I. spent the weekend with her sisters, Mrs. Beatrice Grant and Mrs. Ivie Elting.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stackhouse motored to Pennsylvania and visited friends at Matamoras.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Mendon Savels and Mrs. Helen A. DuBois have been spending a week in Vermont.

Miss Martha Graham was among 300 students attending orientation week at Potsdam State Teachers College where she has enrolled as a freshman. She is the daughter of William E. Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hornsberger and daughter, Betsy of Highlands, Pa., spent Sunday with Mrs. Hornsberger's mother, Mrs. Minnie Henry.

Edward Rothblatt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Rothblatt of 183 Canal street celebrated his Bar Mitzvah on Sept. 24 at the Hebrew Aid Synagogue. A reception for 100 guests followed at the Joseph Slutsky Center. A dinner for the immediate members of the family was held at the Nevele Country Club in the evening.

The Four Hundred

THE FOUR HUNDRED
 10-3

We call the top rank of society the "400" today. The name originated about 1899. At that time a principal social list in New York Ward McAllister listed the "400" people he believed were the "cream" of society in New York. After his list was published McAllister revised it to "150" because he thought that New York society was not exclusive enough.

The nimble prompthon antelope, fastest animal in North America, has bounced back from threatened extinction until it is safe to allow a limited hunting season.

First event planned during Red Feather Month for the public is a Community Service
 Show to be staged at the Kingston High School Auditorium
 this Wednesday, at 8 p. m.

Arranged by members of the Chest's planning committee, the show will be directed by Louis
 H. Schaffer assisted by Mrs. Max
 Oppenheimer. Six of the Chest's eight agencies will have a part in the presentation the six being those that were active during the entire year 1955. Admission to the show is free.

AN INNOVATION this year will be joint Community Chest-Service Club luncheons, designed to give recognition to the service clubs for their efforts in organizing the Chest last year and to inspire Red Feather volunteers who attend the meeting.

The meeting with the Lions Club is scheduled for October 11, at which time it is expected the Advance Gift division will make its final report, and preliminary reports will be made by the Industry and Commercial divisions.

THE INDUSTRY and Commercial divisions are scheduled to make their final report at the Kiwanis Club meeting on Oct.
 13, along with a preliminary report of the Professional and Health divisions.

The Rotary Club meeting on October 26 will feature presentation of awards to outstanding volunteer workers and the semifinal reports of Residential and Suburban divisions.

The current drive is the Kingston Area Community
 Chest's second. Organized in the spring of 1954 following discussions initiated by the three service clubs—Kiwanis, Lions and Rotary—and the Junior Cham-fund campaign that fall.

Tragedy struck that first year in the unexpected death of J.
 Verner Anderson, the Chest's first executive director. The unavoidable confusion hampered the campaign, and returns fell short of the $85,000 goal.

"Nevertheless," according to a statement by George B. Matthews, president of the Chest,
 "by careful management and with the wholehearted cooperation of agency staffs, directors and citizens in general, the member agencies were able to come through the year without seriously curtailing their essential services to the area."

 year," said Matthews. "The mandate to the Chest to continue and strengthen its work was unmistakable. The public wants the Chest; industry and business want it; agency staff and volunteer workers want it.

 area will demonstrate its spirit of generosity and its willingness to cooperate by going 'over the top' in the current Red

Think It Through

By EDWARD F. HUTTON
 Ever try to figure out how much better off you are than years ago? Is it as good as it looks?
 Sure, the old pay envelope is fatter. And the income report to Uncle Sam is bigger. No doubt about it. But are there any leaks?

The In Come is plain to see. The HIDDEN Out Go is the thing to watch. Just like a bank whose cashier has been stealing the de-positors' money. That bank isn't as prosperous as it looks!

It's a darned good thing to take an audit
 once in a while and see if it is all there!
 Try to get one from Government. No dice!
 Due to the decline in the value of money since 1938, all of us together lost $158 billion dollars from 1938 to 1953, which don't show on the books.

Life insurance policies lost $97 billions in purchasing power; bank deposits lost $31 billions, and even those who bought U. S. Government bonds ("The best investment in the world") lost $21 billions, and so on.

One of the important things this administration has done
 these past three years was to arrest this thieving inflation
 "cashier."

Perhaps your Congressman would like to read this, Joe!

 Legion's national convention began next Monday in Miami.
 The national headquarters

staff arrived last night—35 officers and clerks who are the vanguard of an estimated 35-000 delegates.

The national Legion adjutant,
 Henry Dudley of Omaha, Neb., and his aides were among the vanguard of the arrival before welcome banners could be put up.

Dudley was greeted by a drum and bugle corps and an honor guard. After the group left the train station workmen draped banners from the eaves of the station roof.

ANOTHER 25 top administrative officers are to arrive during the week and Seaborn P.
 Collins of Las Cruces, N. M., national commander, is expected to arrive Thursday.

American Legion posts in many Florida towns have esmated the delegates will spend some $200,000 while holding their convention in this resort

Will Follow Peron

Rio De Janeiro, Brazil, Oct. 3 (AP)—The newspaper O Globo today quoted the 16-year-old girl friend of exiled Juan D. Peron as declaring, "If he calls me, I will go anywhere in the world to be at his side." Nelida Haydee Rivas, the school girl linked with the fallen dictator, was interviewed by O Globo's Buenos Aires correspondent at her parents' home near Peron's weekend hideout in Olivos, a Buenos Aires suburb. She told the reporter: "I am at the disposition of my great friend and benefactor, Peron."

Temporary Flagship

Taipei, Formosa, Oct. 3 (AP)—The heavy cruiser Bremerton has temporarily replaced the heavy cruiser St. Paul as flagship of the U. S. 7th Fleet. The St. Paul will undergo repairs in Japan.

21 Hospitalized When Hampton Band Crashes

Albuquerque, Oct. 3 (AP)—Hospital authorities and physicians say 21 persons hospitalized after a bus carrying Lionel Hampton's dance band crashed Saturday are recovering.

One of the members of nationally known band said a front tire on the special bus blew out, and the big vehicle plunged off a bank. The accident was 22 miles south of Socorro on U. S. 85.

Hampton was among the injured. He was placed in a Truth or Consequences, N. M., hospital, where the attending physician said he had a broken ankle, but was "out of shock and doing well."

Flood Damage Estimate

Newton, Mass., Oct. 3 (AP)—The Federal Civil Defense Administration estimates the August floods did $387,467,389 damage in Connecticut, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New York and New Jersey. The figure, announced by Regional Administrator A. D. O'Connor, covers the reported damage done to industrial, commercial, residential and farm properties, public facilities and roads and bridges. In the five-state region, 91 persons died, 6,898 suffered major injuries and 813 homes were destroyed.

80 Die in Typhoon

Saigon, South Viet Nam, Oct. 3 (AP)—At least 80 persons were killed when Typhoon Kate struck North Viet Nam Sept. 26, the official news agency reported today.

100,000 State Workers Under Social Security

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 3 (AP)—More than 100,000 employees of governmental units in New York state have been brought under federal social security coverage, the state reports.

The comptroller's office said yesterday that 29 units, employing 150,000, had been covered recently.

The new units included the cities of Schenectady and Cortland, the New York City Housing Authority and Lewis County. The others were seven villages, five towns, 12 school districts and the Montgomery county soil conservation district.

The new units bring to 1,265 the number covered since the state negotiated an agreement with the federal government two years ago.

Persons covered by civil service retirement or local pension plans are not eligible for social security coverage.

Report Drive on Religion

Hong Kong, Oct. 3 (AP)—Three Belgian priests, Fathers Albert E. J. Weyts, Jules Scheyvaerts and Paul Coucke, arrived here today aboard the British freighter Pakhoi from Shanghai. They reported that 500 Catholics were arrested in Shanghai recently in the Reds' new drive against religion. They said that on Sept. 8 authorities rounded up 200 Chinese priests and Bishop Kiong-Ping-Mei.

Will Ask Murder Warrant in Beating

Cleveland, Oct. 3 (AP)—A 33-year-old truck driver, who beat a 59-year-old salesman he says he found in a compromising situation with his wife, will be charged with murder, police said.

The salesman, Victor D. Luk-anovic of Columbus, Ohio, died yesterday in City Hospital 10 days after the beating.

Police Capt. David E. Kerr said he would seek a murder warrant against the truck driver, Louis W. Taylor, who is 6 feet, 1 inch tall, and weighs 195 pounds.

Mrs. Taylor, who said she tried to separate the two men, received a broken jaw and broken ribs in the row. She was released from the hospital yesterday. The Taylors' two sons, aged 8 and 9, slept through the fight.

Lukanovic's wife, Marie, a stenographer in the Ohio Senate at Columbus, came to Cleveland and stayed at her husband's bedside until his death.
